Visegrad Fund
 The Visegrad Fund is a non-profit organization established in 1991, which promotes cooperation and understanding between the four Visegrad countries (Poland, Hungary, Czech Republic and Slovakia) and the rest of Europe. It is a unique platform for dialogue and exchange of ideas, experiences and best practices. The Fund's activities are focused on education, culture, science, sports and social issues. It organizes various programs, including scholarships, grants, conferences, seminars and workshops. The Fund also supports the development of civil society organizations and promotes the role of the media in society. The Visegrad Fund is a member of the European Council on Foreign Relations (ECFR) and the European Council of the Americas (ECA). It is also a partner of the European Union, the United Nations, the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund (IMF). The Fund's website is www.visegradfund.org.
